

Living Faithfully, Trusting a Faithful God

A prayer to start your day:

"O God, the King eternal, whose light divides the day from the night and turns the shadow of death into the morning: Drive far from us all wrong desires, incline our hearts to keep your law, and guide our feet into the way of peace; that, having done your will with cheerfulness while it was day, we may, when night comes, rejoice to give you thanks; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

- The Book of Common Prayer (Episcopal Church)

Three questions as you look at your day's agenda:

1. What has God given me to do today?

Not everything I could do.

Simply: What is mine to do today?

2. Who has God placed in front of me today?

Who might need my attention, kindness, patience, encouragement, or prayer?

3. What am I trying to carry that belongs to tomorrow?

What can I entrust to God rather than trying to control or solve it today?
