Special Vestry, Sunday 25th at 12.30pm

There will be a short, special Vestry on Sunday September 25th at 12:30 pm over zoom for members of the congregation. The city will be doing road expansion work and has requested permission to enter the church property this fall, in order to do preliminary investigations. We will be presenting the proposed work, taking questions, and presenting the following motion: MOTION FOR SPECIAL VESTRY: That the churchwardens be authorized on behalf of the Vestry of St. Paul's-on-the-Hill to sign a Permission to Enter Agreement between the Municipality of Durham Region and the Corporation of St. Paul on the Hill, Dunbarton, to enter the premises located at 886 Kingston Road, Pickering ON for the purposes of Archeological Assessment fieldwork.

The zoom link was sent to members over Constant Contact and can be found on the website landing page.

METIS 101

As part of our reconciliation efforts, guest speaker Cecile Wagar is coming to offer us a short talk called Metis 101. Come, bring a lunch, and learn about Metis history and culture. Sunday October 16th - 11:45 Coffee or lemonade. Talks is from 12:00-1:30 in the Church Hall.

Special Paint Job

The Memorial Garden needs to have the letters painted on each stone to make the printing more visible. But each stone takes almost 20 minutes. Please consider lending a hand. No previous experience required. Saturday October 1st, at 10:00AM.

FALL IS HERE AND WE ARE PUMPED!

HAND & FOOT IS STARTING
